* The 2010 Junior Golf Membership is valid from January 1, 2010 thru December 31, 2010

I hereby authorize my child named above to join and participate in the Industry Hills Junior Golf Membership Program and submit my check, cash, or credit card payment of $50.00 for my child's membership. I will require my child to abide by the rules and regulations of Industry Hills Golf Club as stated below and in the Junior Membership Booklet.

1. Dress Code: Collared shirts, golf slacks or Bermuda length shorts are appropriate attire for the facility (no cut-offs or T-shirts please). Soft spike shoes or soft sole shoes are also required.
2. Behavior: Juniors are expected to observe all rules and etiquette of the game. No swearing or use of vulgarity. No smoking of cigarettes on the property. Juniors found under the influence of drugs or alcohol will be removed from the property and will forfeit his or her membership.
3. Membership: The junior ID must be carried at all times for the purpose of identification. It must be shown to any Industry Hills staff member upon request. Please show junior ID when purchasing range tokens and junior member green fees.
4. Age: Membership is limited to those juniors that are 17 years of age or younger. When a junior becomes 18, their junior privileges will be terminated.
5. Rules and Regulations: Any juniors not using his or her privileges in the manner stated in the Junior Golf Member booklet or in violation of golf course safety rules and regulations will be suspended or terminated from the Industry Hills Junior Golf Membership Program.
6. Other than the golf clinics listed below, Industry Hills Golf Club will not provide adult supervision while juniors practice in or around our facilities. Parents should accompany juniors at all times and take full responsibility for their children's actions.
7. Juniors are not permitted to operate golf carts but may ride as a passenger of an adult playing companion. Cart rental fees may be assessed. No pull-carts may be used on this facility. There is no exception to this rule.
